

Week Ahead : November 11, 2019

Good evening Hamburg School community. These are items of interest for the week of November 11th.

- Monday is Veteran's Day. Hamburg School will celebrate Veteran's Day with a morning assembly at 8:30 AM. All Veterans and Hamburg community members are invited to join us in the school gymnasium.
- A select group of Hamburg musicians will rehearse with the Sussex County Junior Honors Band this Tuesday. They will perform at Kittatinny High School on Wednesday, Nov 13 at 7:30 pm.
- In other music news, a special congratulations to Ty Dreifus, Hamburg School's sole participant in the Wallkill Valley Regional High School marching band. Ty and his bandmates recently performed at West Point's Michie Stadium during halftime of an Army football game. Great work, Ty!
- Hamburg School is participating in an Indian River Groves fundraiser to support our Eighth Grade students and also in support of our school's STEAM lab. All orders (with payments) are due no later than Friday, November 15th. Once our school order is submitted, the vendor will provide a delivery date. Orders will be available on that date in our school cafeteria. Additional information about our delivery date will be forwarded as soon as possible.
- The U.S. Census Bureau is hiring census-takers for next year's census. See the Digital Backpack for a flyer with details on how to apply.

PTA NEWS

- There will be a PTA Meeting Tuesday, November 12. The preview will begin at 3:05 in the school cafeteria. The meeting proper will begin at 7:30PM in the school library.
- Wednesday is the final day to submit Gertude Hawk orders for the PTA Fundraiser.
- The PTA's adult only Paint and Sip event for Thursday night has been cancelled.
- As a reminder, the Holiday Wreath Sale concludes next week.

As always, details for all events can be found on the school website under "Digital Backpack."

Have a great week!
