

Good evening Hamburg School community. These are items of interest for the week of March 1, 2021.

Love of Reading Week : For information regarding Love of Reading week activities, please view the flyer on the Digital Backpack for details. Tomorrow is Crazy Socks Day!

Yearbooks : Yearbook sales are still underway. Purchases must be made by March 30. Books can be purchased online. Extra copies will be limited and will be sold on a first-come, first-serve basis. Eighth-grade parents if you would like to purchase a happiness ad for your eighth-grade student please contact Ms. Sealander by Friday, March 5.

Extended School Day : The Hamburg School Reopening Committee will meet in the next two weeks to discuss our preparations for extending the school day. Information regarding the committee's discussion and plans will be communicated before the end of March.

WV Little League Baseball : Registration is now open for the spring season of little league baseball. The registration window will close at the end of March. For more information, view the flyer on the Digital Backpack.

COVID-Related Symptoms : It is imperative that all Hamburg Families continue to follow the health department's guidance. Students must stay home if they have COVID-like symptoms, a member of the immediate household is symptomatic or a household member is awaiting a COVID-19 test result. Contact Mrs. Murphy in the main office if your child will stay home. For the health and well-being of our students, staff and Hamburg community, please err on the side of caution.

Potential Pivot to Remote Learning : We would like to thank the Hamburg School community for its preparations, flexibility and understanding regarding our use of remote learning. This mode of virtual teaching has allowed our staff to maintain continuity of instruction for our students. Thanks again.
