Getting Some Insight

A look at what is happening right now in classes throughout the building.

Stop by Hamburg School on Thursday, April 4th between 3:15 and 4:00 pm for a sneak peek inside our classrooms to see what is going on. You'll see projects and assignments posted in each classroom, as well as get a feel for what the students in each class are working on right now. Peek into the classroom of the grade your student(s) will be in next year to catch a glimpse of what they may encounter.

You may see curriculum guides or samples, upcoming project plans, or fun events that students participate in. There will also be several stations throughout the building where you can push a button to hear a little bit of information about something that occurs at that location.

Stop by and join us. Maybe take a walk through your child's day (ask them for their schedule ahead of time, please). We have quite a bit to showcase and you'll have quite a bit to see!

Speaking With the Staff

Staff members will be seen throughout the building preparing for the next days' lessons and activities. This is the perfect opportunity to ask that random question about a topic or project your child has been talking about at home. Please note that staff members will be unable to discuss specific students and/or the progress of specific students when you stop in. If you need to speak with your child's teacher, you will need to contact them to set up a conference for an alternate date and time.
