

Good evening Hamburg School community. These are items of interest for the week of March 15, 2021.

Teacher In-Service : Hamburg School students are not required to attend classes on Monday, March 15th. Classes will resume virtually on Tuesday at 8:10. Hamburg School will stay on remote instruction through Friday, March 19th.

Meeting : There is a virtual Board of Education meeting this Tuesday at 7PM. A link to the event will be posted on the school's website Tuesday afternoon.

Extended School Day : The Hamburg School Reopening Committee met last Thursday to discuss our preparations for extending the school day. The group outlined and critiqued several changes needed to accommodate a longer school day. It is the Committee's recommendation to complete plans for a possible extension to our school day. This plan and COVID-19 risk level will be evaluated at a later date.

Yearbooks : Yearbook sales are still underway. Order your copy online. Purchases must be made by March 30. Extra copies will be limited and will be sold on a first-come, first-serve basis.

WV Little League Baseball : Registration is now open for the spring season of little league baseball. The registration window will close at the end of March. For more information, view the flyer on the Digital Backpack.

YMCA Camp : The Sussex County YMCA is offering a Spring Break camp for children in Kindergarten to Fifth Grade. Space is very limited. For more information, view the flyer on the Digital Backpack.

Travel Quarantines : With Spring Break under a month away, Hamburg Families should remain mindful of the NJ Travel Advisory and self-isolation guidelines. Families traveling out of neighboring states are expected to self-isolate for up to 10 days upon return. You may access more information at <https://covid19.nj.gov/forms/njtravel>.
