

Good evening Hamburg School community. These are items of interest for the week of May 30, 2022.

School Closed : In memory of the U.S. military personnel lost in service to our nation, Hamburg School will be closed on Monday, May 30th. Your sacrifices are not forgotten.

Wildlife : Our campus has become a regular hangout for a juvenile black bear, particularly our trash dumpster. State and local agencies are aware of the situation, and are monitoring the frequency of these visits. At this time, students and staff return inside the school building and wait at least 30 minutes following the last sighting on campus. Whistles and air horns are being used to deter prolonged visits.

- ⇒ If your child regularly walks to / from school, please speak to him/her and develop a “Bear Plan.” ⇐
Access the NJ Department of Fish & Wildlife’s website for recommendations.

Egg Drop : Students will test their egg protection contraptions on Wednesday, June 1st. Eggs will fall by 1:15.

Water Day : This Friday (6-3), our classes will host Water Day stations. For more information about the event, please contact your student’s homeroom teacher.

Next Year : The calendar for the 2022-2023 school year is posted on the school’s website. Students will return to the classrooms on Tuesday, September 6th.

PTA News

Dance : This Friday, the PTA will host the Class of 2022 for a night of dancing, fun and games. If you are interested in helping, please contact a PTA representative.

Contribute : The PTA reminds families to participate in our Amazon Smile and BoxTops of Education programs. Both incentives are excellent ways for families to contribute to the school community through routine purchases. Check the PTA’s webpage for more information.

For additional information regarding any of these topics or events, please check the school’s website and Digital Backpack. Have a great week!
